Recognition of New Mothers

Call to Worship: Bill MacKenzie
You have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject him who warns from heaven. Hebrews 12:22-25

Hymn.....Let Us Love And Sing And Wonder (All Saints).....172

Invocation and the Lord’s Prayer Bill MacKenzie
Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

Confession of Faith: Bill MacKenzie
Q46: What do you mean by saying, ”He ascended to heaven”?
A: That Christ, while his disciples watched, was lifted up from the earth to heaven and will be there for our good until he comes again to judge the living and the dead.
Q47: But isn’t Christ with us until the end of the world as he promised us?
A: Christ is truly human and truly God. In his human nature Christ is not now on earth; but in his divinity, majesty, grace, and Spirit he is not absent from us for a moment.
Q48: If his humanity is not present wherever his divinity is, then aren’t the two natures of Christ separated from each other?
A: Certainly not. Since divinity is not limited and is present everywhere, it is evident that Christ’s divinity is surely beyond the bounds of the humanity he has taken on, but at the same time his divinity is in and remains personally united to his humanity.
Q49: How does Christ’s ascension to heaven benefit us?
A: First, he pleads our cause in heaven in the presence of his Father. Second, we have our own flesh in heaven-- a guarantee that Christ our head will take us, his members, to himself in heaven. Third, he sends his Spirit to us on earth as a further guarantee. By the Spirit’s power we make the goal of our lives, not earthly things, but the things above where Christ is, sitting at God’s right hand.

Corporate Confession: Bill MacKenzie
Almighty God, we are unworthy to come into your presence, because of our many sins. We do not deserve any grace or mercy from you, if you dealt with us as we deserve. We have sinned against you, O Lord, and we have offended you. And yet, O Lord, we acknowledge you to be merciful to all who turn to you. And so we humbly ask you to show mercy to us and forgive us. Forgive the sins of our youth, and the sins of our old age. By your Spirit, O God, take possession of our hearts so that the actions of our life, the words of our mouths, and the smallest thought of our minds may be guided and governed by you. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever. Amen. (From John Knox, Liturgy of 1560)

Assurance of Pardon: Bill MacKenzie
“Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.”

- Enjoying God by Tim Chester: (Ladies only) We believe in God, we serve God, we love God but do we ENJOY God as much as we can? Does our head knowledge translate into affection of the heart? Do we have a meaningful relationship with someone we can’t see?
- That Hideous Strength by C.S. Lewis (novel): What is the real “culture war”? Lewis paints a war between the modern post-enlightenment life-world) with its exaltation of so-called “objective knowledge, and the traditional life-world that reaches back through the Middle Ages to the Bible, with its emphasis on spiritual values and virtues that shape every part of human life in obedience to God. This is Lewis’ 3rd book in the Ransom Trilogy, but it stands on its own. Consider it a fairytale for grown-ups with a serious point.
